NEW & NOTEWORTHY

We like to keep our ears to the ground when it comes to what's going on in the world of luxury hotels and resorts. If there's a new hotel set to open or an exciting renovation in progress, you can rest assured we'll have all the latest news to share with you.

HUVAFEN FUSHI MALDIVES

How do you improve on perfection? That's the conundrum that faced leading architecture and interior design firm BLINK Design Group as they embarked on the renovation of long-time favourite Huvafen Fushi, which reopened in October 2023.

A ten-week glow-up has refreshed the interiors of all 44 existing bungalows and pavilions, with a minimalist, nature-inspired aesthetic that makes use of organic forms, local materials and soft, subtle colours. As previous visitors may know, Huvafen was the first resort in the Maldives to offer a private plunge pool in every room, and they continue to innovate with additions like the new outdoor over-reef lounge area at Raw restaurant. The resort's shallow lagoon allows you to snorkel straight from the beach, and you're also close to some of the best dive sites in the Maldives, home to marine life including sharks, turtles and manta rays.

Other enhancements include the new accommodation options: the stunning two bedroom Ocean Pavilion and Beach House, and the three bedroom Beach Pavilion. There is also a new interactive dining experience at the feet-in-the-sand Celsius restaurant, with dedicated cooking stations and a new menu. Celsius is just one of six amazing restaurants that continue to delight both new and returning visitors, as does the unique underwater spa. Truly, there is nowhere else like Huvafen Fushi.

7 nights from £4,645 per person sharing a Lagoon Bungalow with Plunge Pool including breakfast.

OFFER: Save 35%. STAY: 05 Jan - 30 Sep 2024.

SIX SENSES LA SAGESSE GRENADA

Luxury wellness brand Six Senses makes its much-anticipated debut in the Caribbean with the sublime Six Senses La Sagesse, a hillside haven of tranquillity between two beautiful beaches. As you would expect, the resort offers a best-in-class spa and wellness experience, blending indigenous wisdom with cutting-edge science, nutrition and holistic therapies. The low-rise accommodation, locally sourced menus and nature-focused kids' programme are perfectly in keeping with the unspoilt surroundings, making this a wonderful choice for eco-conscious couples and families. There are 56 suites, all with private plunge pool, plus 15 hillside and beachfront villas offering up to four bedrooms, with no building taller than a palm tree. The architecture is inspired by the region, with the feel of a Caribbean village, and all accommodations have been positioned to maximise the panoramic views of the turquoise sea. The resort has a central pool, lakeside promenade and access to two beaches. The Experience Centre is the place to book your spa treatments and excursions, browse the boutique or enjoy some quiet time at the Library, while the Earth Lab operates informative and thought-provoking workshops on the natural world and how to lighten your footprint. The Spa itself overlooks the lagoon and draws on local community knowledge and traditions, making ample use of indigenous plants and herbs. There is a children's play centre and teen's lounge for younger guests, and the Grow With Six Senses programme allows kids to reconnect with nature and get involved in activities like creating their own after-sun or treasure hunts and fitness challenges.

7 nights from £3,849 per person sharing a Lagoon Pool Suite including breakfast.

STAY: 01 June - 31 Oct 2024.

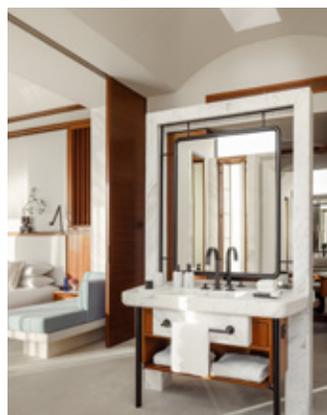

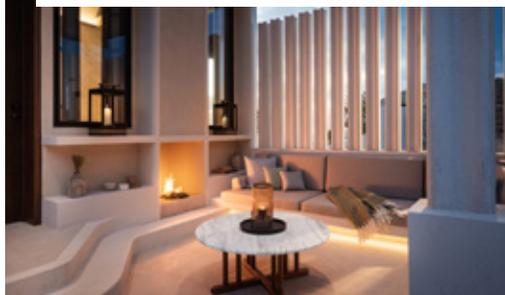

ONE&ONLY KÉA ISLAND
KÉA ISLAND, NEAR ATHENS, GREECE

The inimitable One&Only arrives in the Greek islands for the first time with this stunning clifftop retreat, which opens its doors in April 2024. Kéa is the greenest and most fertile of the Cyclades islands, a jealously guarded secret amongst the well-to-do Athenians who holiday here. Just 30 minutes by private boat from the Greek capital, the island is an Arcadian idyll of sleepy villages, rugged valleys and secluded beaches. The resort occupies 65 hectares of beautiful beachfront on the west coast, with 63 one and two bedroom villas that fuse classically Cycladic whitewashed walls with rich woods and gleaming marble. All villas have a private pool and panoramic sea views, along with a spacious terrace, courtyard and fireplace. You can savour artfully presented Greek dishes at the Taverna, sink into a shaded cabana at the Pool Bar and enjoy the latest chilled beats at the Beach Club while the sun goes down. As you would expect in this part of the world, there is endless fun to be had on the water, including sailing, snorkelling and diving, and there is also an enchanting spa and a well-equipped fitness centre. One&Only always delivers the goods when it comes to family fun, and the KidsOnly club offers creative activities including kite making, cooking, face painting and treasure hunts.

7 nights from £7,559 per person sharing a Cliff Villa including breakfast. STAY: 01 May - 31 Oct 2024.

ONE&ONLY AESTHESIS ATHENS, GREECE

'Nostalgia' is one of the many words the Greek language has given to the world, and rarely has that sense of reverence for the past been more stylishly embodied than at the brand new One&Only Aesthesis. Sequestered amongst 21 hectares of protected forest, on a private stretch of the Athenian Riviera, this beautiful boutique hotel evokes the cosmopolitan elegance of the 1960s with its mid-century coastal style.

There are just 127 rooms, bungalows and villas, embellished with artful touches like free-standing bathtubs in curving natural stone. Bungalows and suites have private pools and expansive terraces, while the villas are right on the seafront with extra quirks like sunken fire pits and fully equipped kitchens.

You can expect an elevated dining experience at Ore by Ettore Botrini, serving Greek cuisine with an Italian influence, and El Bar de Paco Morales is an innovative Andalusian restaurant from the man behind Córdoba's two-Michelin-starred Noor. Completing the culinary line-up is Manko, a poolside Peruvian Club Restaurant. The hotel has three pools, along with a stunning Guerlain Spa, fitness centre, tennis court, cycling and running trails and the KidsOnly Club for 4-11 yrs. Athens is just a 30-minute drive away, and the hotel can arrange Acropolis tours, traditional sandal making workshops, sunset cruises and more.

7 nights from £6,499 per person sharing a Aesthesis Bungalow including breakfast.

STAY: Now - 31 May & 22 Sept -31 Oct 2024.

Turks & Caicos

VIRGIN ATLANTIC ANNOUNCES NEW ROUTE

Virgin Atlantic are now flying to the idyllic islands of Turks & Caicos, offering a slice of utopia and the chance to explore some of the world's most beautiful beaches, and finest snorkelling and scuba diving. The new service operates year-round, twice weekly from London Heathrow. The new route operates on the airlines Boeing 787-9 aircraft boasting 31 Upper Class, 35 Premium and 192 Economy seats.

On the face of it, the proposition offered by the Turks and Caicos Islands is a simple one: 'the best beaches in the world'. But this is no idle marketing boast; the sand here really is softer and whiter, the waters a more perfect shade of turquoise, the footprint of tourism lighter.

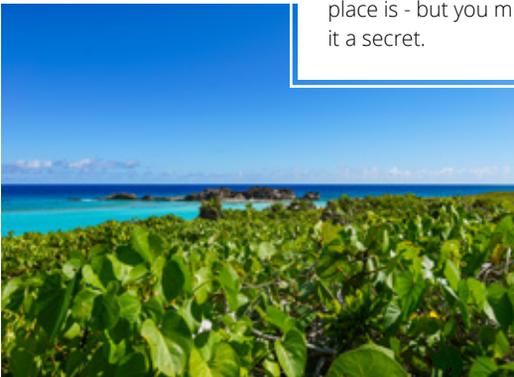

It's no surprise that Virgin Atlantic have launched a new twice-weekly direct flight from London Heathrow, making this paradisiacal collection of some 50 islands and cays more accessible to the UK traveller than ever. However, if you're looking for huge water parks, glitzy casinos or sprawling resorts then this probably isn't the destination for you.

It's a place to take a romantic stroll along a deserted beach; enjoy a rum punch and conch fritters at a feet-in-the-sand beach bar; snorkel and dive with sea turtles, eagle rays and nurse sharks; and swim with humpback whales. Explore the faded streets of old Cockburn Town, where donkeys and wild horses roam, and enjoy the height of laid-back luxury at boutique hotels like The Palms Turks and Caicos and Grace Bay Club.

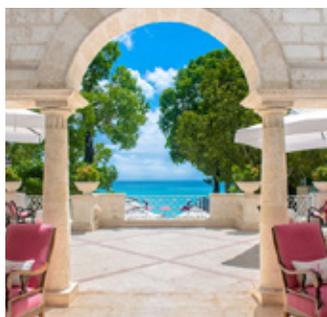

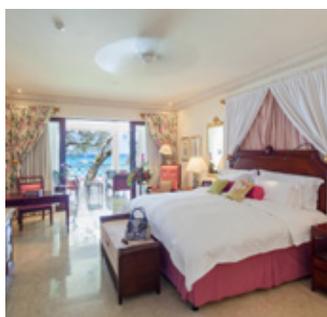

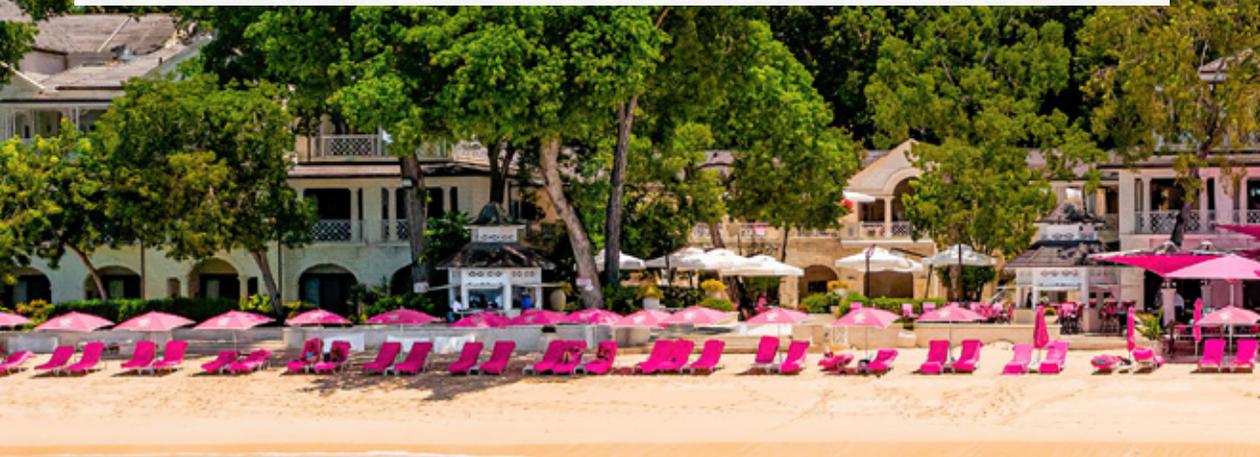

When you return home, you'll be desperate to tell people how amazing this place is - but you might just decide to keep it a secret.

MULTI-GENERATIONAL FAMILY ESCAPES

Thinking of a memorable holiday with the whole family? Here are just a selection of fantastic resorts to allow Granny and Grandpa to enjoy their time away just as much as the junior members of the family. They offer the perfect balance of activities, culture and relaxation to appeal to everyone. From inter-connecting suites to villas – these luxurious resorts will cater to everyone.

SANDY LANE BARBADOS

What can be more luxurious than arriving in style in a Rolls Royce Phantom? That is just one of the many details that gives Sandy Lane its name for being the most celebrated address on the glamorous west coast of Barbados. Committed to a certain kind of traditional service where no detail is overlooked, life here is so easy and unhurried, and it's no surprise Sandy Lane is consistently ranked as the best place to stay on Barbados.

When you're not being served exotic cocktails by the pool or enjoying the delectable cuisine, there are 45 holes of golf to play, a superb children's club and a marvellous rejuvenating spa. This slice of Barbadian paradise exudes an unparalleled level of luxury; each room is an exquisite work of art in itself, with the lavish Orchid Rooms overlooking the tropical gardens, and the Luxury Ocean Rooms boasting spectacular sea views.

An excellent choice for all the family. Children will love The Treehouse Club, dedicated to fun and entertainment for children aged 3 and older while there is a dedicated programme for toddlers and activities for teens too. From sports clinics and matinees to themed dinners and island adventures, magic memories can be made at this luxurious resort.

Enjoy an array of fine dining and informal meals at the four restaurants, as well as varied menus and settings. Bajan Blue is famous for its sensational Sunday brunch – an assortment of mouth-watering dishes from sushi and suckling pig to delicious desserts. During selected times in Summer and Autumn, guests can receive a generous Food and Beverage Credit. Plus, choose from a wonderful set of packages with unique added value experiences tailored towards families, golfers, romance, or spa and wellness.

7 nights from £4,629 per adult & £3,419 per child staying in two Orchid Rooms including breakfast.

*OFFER: Save 50% on second room for children
+ Complimentary dinner for children 3-12 years
+ VIP Airport Arrival Fast Track.*

STAY: 13 Apr - 31 Oct 2024.

WINDJAMMER LANDING VILLA

A NEW ERA FOR ALL-INCLUSIVE

Gone are the days where an all-inclusive family meant busy buffets and uninspiring drinks. These handpicked hotels are shaking up the all-inclusive scene with exceptional programmes that go beyond delicious dining and drinks – whether that’s working through the Michelin-starred menus, exploring the area in a Tesla for the day, or indulging in spa treatments, all included in the price.

OZEN COLLECTION MALDIVES

Sublime sister resorts OZEN LIFE MADHOO and OZEN RESERVE BOLIFUSHI share many similarities. Both are situated in the South Malé Atoll, each offering just 90 villas, suites and private reserves, and both with an extremely generous all-inclusive offering that covers everything from Champagne breakfast to a wild array of watersports. And the longer you stay, the more benefits you accrue.

But there are also subtle differences between the experience offered by each resort. OZEN LIFE MADHOO takes fine dining to exciting new places, not least at the unique underwater M6m restaurant, which is submerged six metres below sea level. The marine environment also comes to the fore at the glass-floored spa, PADI watersports centre and on board the SubZen semi-submarine.

OZEN RESERVE BOLIFUSHI offers some truly incredible accommodation options, with all suites, villas and private reserves featuring their own private pool and direct access to the beach or lagoon. Some even have their own waterslide! Striking design features traditional wooden swings, L-shaped pools and bold pops of colour give the resort its own uniquely stylish look, and the extensive resort amenities include an overwater spa, atmospheric wine cellar and restaurants that draw on Spanish, Indian and Middle Eastern culinary traditions.

LEMONGARDEN BRAČ, CROATIA

This is a hidden gem of pure luxury and relaxation on the island of Brač. An adults-only property with ample space ensures peace and quiet for all guests, providing the ideal base from which to explore the Dalmatian islands. Guests are greeted by immaculately maintained gardens filled with roses, hibiscus and hundreds of fragrant lemon trees. With just 39 rooms and suites spread across three buildings, each combine the elegance of a southern French country house with the splendour of a Venetian palace. The herbs growing in the garden are used by the hotel's internationally awarded chef in his fresh, Mediterranean dishes. All other ingredients are also locally sourced, such as fresh fish and seafood from local fishermen and vegetables from the hotel's own organic farm.

7 nights from £1,629 per person sharing a Small Superior Room including breakfast.

STAY: 26 Apr - 31 Oct 2024.

DOMES LAKE ALGARVE, AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION ALGARVE, PORTUGAL

This is the first Domes property outside of Greece, set on a tranquil private lake just three minutes from Vilamoura and its chic marina. Domes is the only resort to have direct marina access and also its own beach bar restaurant on the beautiful Praia da Falesia beach. There are 192 rooms and suites, with interiors inspired by both the local architecture and the earthy, natural tones of the wetland ecosystem. Domes Resorts are highly regarded for their innovative culinary offerings, and this is no exception, with four restaurants and three bars spread around the resort. Ideal for families, the crèche and kids' club operate to UK Ofsted standards, with staff that focus on Montessori-style methods, and the KIEPOS programme encourages children to learn about sustainability and healthy eating by planting their own vegetables, herbs and flowers.

7 nights from £1,729 per person sharing an Inland Retreat including breakfast.

OFFER: Save Up to 15%. STAY: 06 Jan - 25 Jul & 27 Aug - 02 Nov 2024.

MARBELLA, MAR-BELLA COLLECTION CORFU, GREECE

This immaculate hotel has a prime spot on Corfu's east coast. Between two lively villages, it's easy to experience a flavour of local life, while activities and entertainment means there's plenty of variety on offer if you don't want to stray too far away. Each of the 359 rooms and suites are decorated in soft colours and feature a balcony or terrace. Surrounded by 'hills of green' on one side, the Ionian Sea on the other, spectacular views are also never far away, though the grounds and pools are a delightful sight in their own, luxurious right.

Ideal for a family escape in August, there's so much going on, from organised activities to carefree fun with new-found friends. From tots to teens, they'll love the kids clubs. There's football, tennis, robotics, arts & crafts, and all sorts of fun games. And when it comes to having a splashtastic time in the water, the crystal-clear sea is perfect for swimming, paddleboarding and just simply messing about in. There are pools of all shapes and sizes. And then there's the Anemelia Aqua Park – a colourful, fun-packed world of splashes. Filled with slides, tubes and tunnels, your little ones will play all day - and you'll be very tempted to join them!

7 nights from £2,359 per adult & £499 per child sharing a Superior Double Garden View Room on All-Inclusive.

OFFER: Save up to 20%. STAY: 19 Apr - 02 Nov 2024.

On a luxury holiday to Bermuda, you will find a quietly sophisticated island, offering visitors some wonderful museums, art galleries, UNESCO World Heritage Sites and parks and green spaces to wander amongst, a pristine capital city, Hamilton, and a host of outstanding golf courses to play. A pretty island with quaint cottages, complete with manicured lawns, rocky coves and pink coral-sand beaches, it's also classed amongst the world's top diving sites – hidden amongst the beautiful reefs there are over three hundred shipwrecks for divers of any experience to explore. Warmed by the Gulf Stream and rich in history, Bermuda enjoys a perfect year round climate, if you're looking for a picture-perfect vision of sub tropical beauty that's all nodding palms, pink-hued sands, turquoise waters and luxury yachts, Bermuda is most definitely for you.

Often described as 'the prettiest island in the world', this impressive statement is brought to life by its rocky coves and pink coral beaches and complemented by the uniquely Bermudian, brightly coloured buildings, though it's not just beach-lovers who return year after year; Bermuda's totally-superb golf courses also lure travellers back onto their lush greens, and watersports enthusiasts are delighted by the array of activities on offer.

Highlights include the UNESCO World Heritage Site, St. George's with the cultural heart of Bermuda. This centuries old community is the oldest continuously inhabited English town in the Americas. Explore the brick-paved streets, boutique stores and art galleries in this beautifully quaint little town. Just down the road, you'll find one of the best beaches on the whole island; Tobacco Bay Beach. Grab a Dark N Stormy cocktail and enjoy the view or head into the water where you will find one of the best snorkelling spots on the island.

FEEL THE SPIRIT OF BARBADOS

Barbados is home to some of the most exclusive hotels in the Caribbean, from the six-star stylings of Sandy Lane to the whispered luxury of Coral Reef Club, so it's a natural choice for anyone looking to celebrate in style. The island's impressive roster of fine dining establishments is reason alone to spend a special birthday or anniversary here; our favourites include The Cliff, Baia and The Lone Star. Or, if unearthing undiscovered local gems is more your bag, why not take a foodie tour of the island and tuck into authentic Bajan favourites like cou cou and flying fish. The nightlife in Barbados is another big draw, from the famous St Lawrence Gap to more recent additions like the Vujaday festival, which attracts the biggest names in house and techno to the island. For a more sedate celebration, why not charter your own yacht and check out some of the less well-known beaches and snorkelling spots while being waited on hand and foot. The platinum sands of the west coast are the reason most people come to Barbados, but a trip around the island lets you explore the dramatic scenery of the more rugged Atlantic shoreline.

FLY DIRECT FROM MANCHESTER TO BARBADOS WITH AER LINGUS

Ireland's national airline is a favoured choice for luxury long haul travellers on both sides of the Irish Sea, offering transatlantic flights to North America and the Caribbean from Dublin and Manchester. Most exciting for our clients is the route between Manchester and Barbados, with Aer Lingus flying direct to Bridgetown three times a week between November and April, meaning there's no need for travellers in the north of England to connect via London.

The Airbus A330-300, the largest aircraft in the Aer Lingus fleet, ensures a smooth 8-hour journey from a wintry Manchester to the sun-kissed Caribbean. The Economy cabin is fitted with Recaro seats ensuring a 31" pitch, a complimentary meal is provided and all seats feature a Panasonic AVOD in-flight entertainment system, offering the latest blockbusters, classic films, box sets and music on demand. WiFi is also available at an additional charge.

Upgrade to Business Class and enjoy some rest en route with super comfy seats that recline to a fully lie-flat 6½-foot bed. A seat width of 22 inches means there's plenty of room to stretch out in all directions. You also have access to 120 hours of the latest films, box sets, documentaries and more, with a 16-inch multi-touch HD Panasonic screen and noise-cancelling headphones as standard.

Aer Lingus

ON THE WATER

Spending time by the ocean is immeasurably calming and rejuvenating for the soul. Vast ocean panoramas from a shaded private balcony, the sound of lapping waves as you drift to sleep or the gentle rush of the rides lulling you to sleep from your over-water villa, these oceanfront escapes will inspire your next soothing escape.

CLIPPER CRUISES

Cruising with Star Clippers is a wonderful way to explore the world and celebrate a special occasion; in just one holiday you could take in palm-fringed beaches, cities rippling with history and culture, sprawling vineyards, and awe-inspiring archaeological sites, all while travelling on board these magnificent ships. Feel the wind in your hair as you sail aboard what feels like your very own private yacht. Star Clippers' fleet of striking four- and five-masted tall ships provide an intimate cruising experience with no more than 227 guests on board. You'll find life aboard extremely comfortable with luxury cabins, superb facilities, elegant dining and attentive, friendly service. But if you want to extend your holiday and slow down the pace, we can tailor-make your cruise holiday with a pre- or post-stay in a city or island of your choice.

THE ST. REGIS VOMMULI RESORT MALDIVES

In the highly competitive world that is the Maldives luxury hotel market, it takes something pretty special to stand out, so we take our hats off to the design team behind the St. Regis Maldives Vommuli Resort. Flowing organic forms echo the marine life of the Indian Ocean, from the soaring roof of the Whale Bar to intimate details like the seashell-clad ceiling lights.

These naturalistic touches are the perfect foil for the bright and modern interiors, with a real sense of light and space defining each of the 77 private pool villas. All accommodation includes butler service and high-end amenities like a Bang & Olufsen BeoVision entertainment system. There are seven restaurants and bars, featuring everything from Kaiseki-style Japanese cooking to comforting hand-made pizzas. For something extra special, book one of the unique private dining experiences, such as a sandbank picnic or a floating breakfast in your plunge pool, or charter a private yacht for a romantic overnight stay.

The sport and wellness offering adds another string to Vommuli's bow, with a beautiful over-water spa, fitness centre, large outdoor pool, PADI dive and watersports centre, outdoor tennis court and activities including yoga and acupuncture. This is also a great choice for discerning families, with an inventive Children's Club for kids aged 4-12 yrs, plus a games room equipped with table tennis, futsal, air hockey and pool table.

7 nights from £5,965 per person sharing a Lagoon Overwater Villa including breakfast.

OFFER: Save up to 20% + Complimentary Half Board. STAY: 10 Jan- 20 Dec 2024.

THE SEYCHELLES

Tantalising white sand beaches are dappled with the silhouettes of swaying palms, the sapphire Indian Ocean laps gently at the shore, and amid banyan trees and fairy terns you lay swaying in your hammock, wondering where else in the world there could possibly be a place as idyllic as this.

Just a few degrees south of the equator, the 115 granite islands of the Seychelles are a luxurious sanctuary where hopeless romantics come to idle away a couple of weeks in bliss. Ever-popular as a honeymoon destination, this cluster of idyllic islands in the Indian Ocean are bequeathed with nature's gifts and adorned with a bedazzlement of resorts that cater perfectly for couples seeking romance and seclusion. The 41 granitic and 74 coral lined islands that make up the country are scattered like diamonds in the night sky across the warm waters of the Indian Ocean. Tourism still treads lightly here, and these magical islands remain a sanctuary for both discerning luxury travellers and the Seychelles' spectacular wildlife. In between exploring the islands you'll need somewhere to relax; luckily for you, the Seychelles is home to some of the world's most desirable resorts. From plush pool villas overlooking tranquil bays to beachfront cottages dotted around private islands.

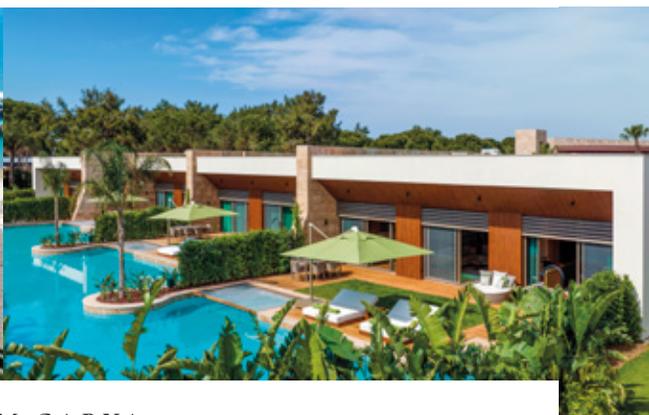

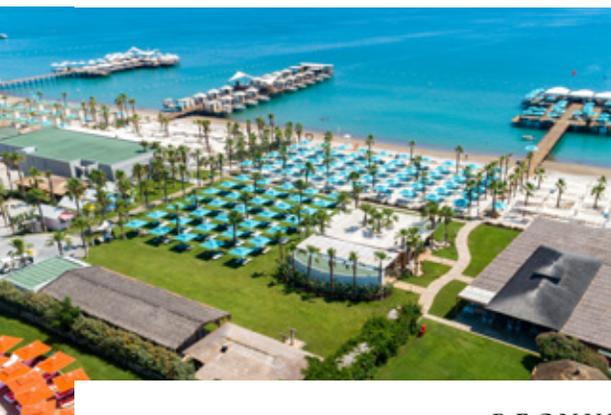

FAIRMONT ROYAL PAVILION BARBADOS

This luxurious resort delivers oceanfront living at its finest, a supremely elegant resort comprised of just 72 rooms and suites plus one luxurious three-bedroom villa. It's long been a favourite with both our clients and our staff, not least thanks to the sublime dining options on offer. The stylish and luxurious guest rooms take full advantage of the amazing ocean views. You won't find anywhere in Barbados with suites as close to water at this. Days at this beachfront resort tend to revolve around the freshwater swimming pool, clear turquoise waters of the ocean and golden sand, while there are plenty of activities for the entire family to enjoy - from watersports and tennis to spa treatments in the privacy of guest suites and shopping at the nearby towns.

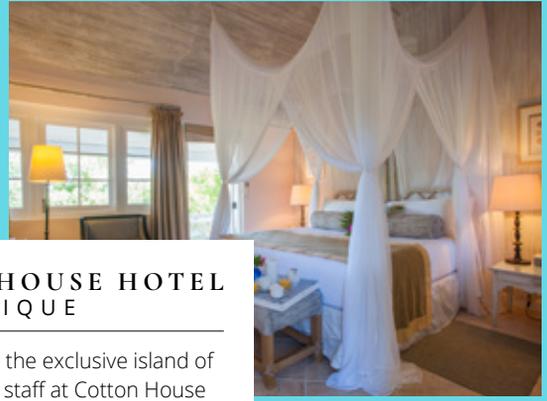

7 nights from £2,999 per person sharing a Luxury Oceanfront Room including breakfast.
OFFER: Save 40% + VIP Arrival Airport Service in Barbados. STAY: 01 May - 31 Aug 2024.

EPIC POOLS

Dive into the most impressive and luxurious swimming pools. Taking time out on your luxury escape is essential and having a striking pool to enjoy certainly eases the day's activities. Whether you prefer lounging poolside with a cocktail or diving straight in, we've handpicked a collection of luxurious pools that deliver infinite relaxation, and beyond.

SUGAR BEACH, A VICEROY RESORT SAINT LUCIA

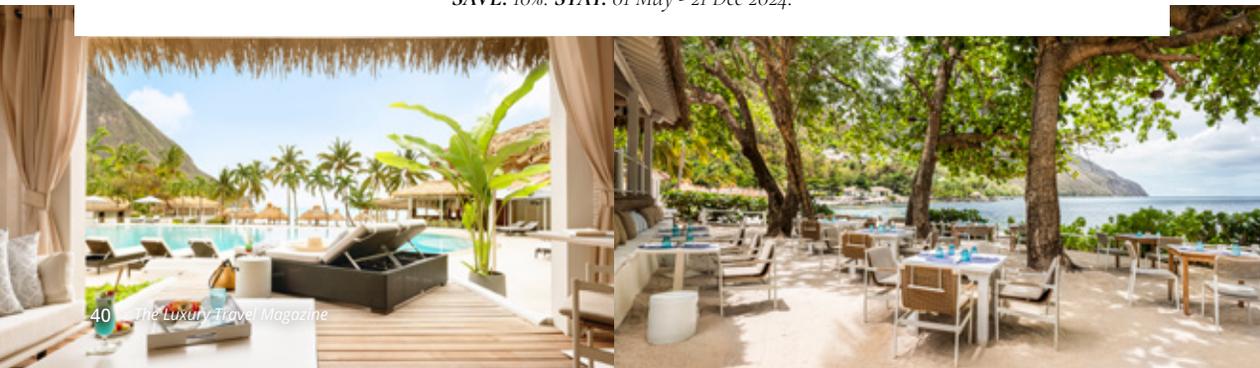

Surrounded by 100 acres of lush rainforest and wedged between the majestic emerald Piton mountains, this breathtaking resort cascades down towards a dazzling white-sand beach. Admire the Pitons and sun-kissed shoreline from your private infinity pool, beach lounger, or while dining on hearty creole cuisine in Bonte restaurant. The villas up on the hillside are popular with the A-list crowd, offering privacy and incredible views of the bay, though others may prefer to be right on the sand in one of the beachfront bungalows. Upgrade to one of the ultra-luxurious Residences or the Beachfront Collection, that feature up to four bedrooms and for a greater sense of space and privacy- these all have the luxury of a private plunge pool and butler service.

Four restaurants serve an eclectic menu of Caribbean influenced food and there are several bars to enjoy a cocktail before and after dinner. For days not spent on the pristine beach, the fabulous Rainforest Spa is housed in treehouse-style gazebos hidden amongst the tropical foliage and offers a full range of treatments. For more active days, there are two tennis courts, a state-of-the-art fitness centre, PADI dive centre and complimentary non-motorised watersports.

Relax in the cradle of the Piton mountains. The resort's new poolside experience allows guests to swim, soak up the sun or simply lounge while enjoying food and drinks from an exclusive menu, all with a view of some of the most dramatic scenery on the island.

LOS CABOS, MEXICO

Los Cabos is a true culinary melting pot. Just as the Pacific Ocean washes over the fringes of the cactus-speckled Baja desert, so the currents of global gastronomy mix and meld with the unmistakable flavours of Mexico. It's an outward-looking place with international influences, thanks to a large expat population and a thriving tourism industry. This cosmopolitan outlook is reflected in the amazing variety of restaurants, and in the number of globally recognised chefs plying their trade. The forward-thinking foodies of Los Cabos were early adopters of the farm-to-table philosophy, exemplified by the likes of Flora Farms, Acre and Los Tamarindos. The same approach can be found at many of the top luxury resorts, such as our favourite Viceroy Los Cabos, with its traditional Mexican restaurant Casero and the spectacular Nido, which resembles an upturned bird's nest and serves amazing ceviche and sushi. Fusion is another big trend in Los Cabos, in particular when it comes to showcasing other Pacific coastal cuisines such as Japanese and Peruvian. It's no surprise that the master of nikkei fusion, Nobu Matsuhisa, chose Los Cabos for his first hotel in Latin America. Los Cabos also boasts a great bar scene, whether you're a cocktail lover, a craft beer aficionado or you're interested in exploring the world of tequila and mezcal.
